

Noa

30/6/2020

Item: snow

The snow was as cold as a winter's night. I snow moved swiftly as it floated in the air. The snow fell down from the sky like a leaf falling from a tree.

Item: Rain

Rain drops the size of dimes pelted down hitting the ground. Small trickles of rain like a straight line gently fell onto the ground.

Item: wind

The light winds gently brush aside objects. The wind is like a snake as it blew in and out through trees.

Item: lightning

The lightning struck down without think of the damage it could cause.

Item: storm

The cloud rumbled like it was hungry and burst out with heavy rain.

Repeated line: Rise up my spell

Poem

The snow fell down from the sky like a leaf falling from a tree,

Like a winters night what more is there to see.

Rise up my spell.

Rain drops the size of dimes pelted down hitting the ground,

The trickles of rain were so small you couldn't hear a sound.

Rise up my spell.

The wind is like a snake as it blew in and out through objects.

Rise up my spell.

The lightning struck down without think of the damage it could make,

Before you know it the earth would start to shake.

Rise up my spell.

The cloud rumbled like it was hungry,

And it burst out with droplets of rain.

Rise up my spell.
