

- 1 Correct the punctuation error in this text:

Those who believe that children should do chores for pocket money are wrong, they should do chores because they belong to a family unit.

1 P
1 mark

- 2 Add an apostrophe to this sentence:

In spite of what they had been told, all the boys shoes were muddy.

2 P
1 mark

- 3 Use each article only once to fill in the gaps in the sentence below.

Choose from: a an the

You asked me _____ question and I will give you _____ answer. However, even if you don't like _____ answer I give, you still have to accept it.

3 G
2 marks

- 4 Circle the preposition in this sentence: He was gone for a long time.

4 G
1 mark

- 5 Circle the correct verb to fill the gap in the sentence below:

is have has had

Tim _____ only gone to the shop an hour ago, and now he had to go again!

5 G
1 mark

- 6 (a) Underline the subordinate clause in this sentence:

Notwithstanding the fact that it was her birthday, Zara was unhappy.

6(a) G
1 mark

(b) Rewrite the sentence above using a different connective. You may need to change some of the other words too:

6(b) G
1 mark

- 7 Circle the word which is the best synonym for the underlined word:

examination exclamation expectation exploration

They waited in anticipation of a good time.

7 V
1 mark

- 8 'Exercise' is something you do to keep fit. Write a sentence showing a different meaning for the word 'exercise':

8 V
1 mark

/10

Total for this test