

Describe the ship

Today we would like you to describe your ship using your senses (What can you see, hear and feel?). Remember there is no ship in the universe quite like yours, you need to add as much description as you can, so we can picture it in our heads.

Don't forget there is a word mat in the Week 9 Writing folder to help you and here are some pictures to give you some ideas.

