On a Sunday morning two disciples were on their way to Emmaus. A village seven miles away from Jerusalem.

What are you two talking about so sadly? He asked.

"Jesus of Nazareth the great prophet said he was bought by God and then the chief priests sent the Romans to crucify him.

Suddenly they recognized him but as they did he had vanished.

At once they turned around and headed back to Jerusalem.

And then they told their story and how they recognized him when he broke and blessed the bread.
